

University of Utah Faculty Club

“One day there will be no borders, no boundaries, no flags and no countries and the only passport will be the heart”

— Carlos Santana

This is the first University of Utah Faculty Club Newsletter!

The University of Utah Faculty Club is a gathering place for those who enjoy meeting other members of the University of Utah faculty from both the main and health sciences center campus in casual comfortable surroundings to enjoy food, drink and camaraderie.

The Faculty Club is a group of individuals who meet on a monthly basis to mingle and share our experiences. Our group has over 250 members, and we have activities planned to allow us to get to know our University, and each other.

Activities

We host Socials most months during the academic year. We meet on the first Friday of each month at 5:00 pm in the Marriott University Park Hotel in Research Park on Wakara Way.

The December Holiday Party includes dinner and a white elephant gift exchange.

Our boisterous end of year business meeting includes a full dinner.

One of our longest-standing traditions is planning and hosting the Children's Holiday Party for all University-related kids. Balloon animals, singing, dancing, theatrical productions, magic show and crafts – we host it all!

Other events: We partner with Utes Basketball, Gymnastics and Volleyball programs, as well as Arts and Theater departments to sponsor activities for faculty club members. Kingsbury Hall and Pioneer Theater have gotten in on the act, as has the Chamber Music Society of SLC! We've planted the seeds for fun with Red Butte Gardens.

The University of Utah Faculty Club affiliated with the Marriott University Park Hotel in 2014. Through this affiliation Faculty Club members can enjoy many amenities of the Hotel at a reduced rate, e.g., all food at a 20% discount, reduced cost hotel stays, and many other amenities.

New Faculty, Experienced Faculty, Emeritus Faculty, join us!
